

Larry Clark Memorial Fund National Bursary

2022 Application

The applicant must have been involved in the sport of purebred dogs for a minimum of two (2) years in either Conformation or Performance events sanctioned by the Canadian Kennel Club. They must have competed in Junior Handling at any level while demonstrating a high degree of Sportsmanship. Junior Handlers from across Canada are invited to apply for this National Bursary.

The applicant will be expected to provide the following:

- An academic transcript from previous institution(s) the applicant has attended along with the enrolment or approval letter from the post secondary institution.
- Two letters of reference reflecting the applicant's worthiness from (i) a teacher or instructor, (ii) a member of the dog community or an individual who has known the applicant for at least two (2) years.
- For the competition year 2022 we would request an essay of 1000 words. The first 200 words indicating applicant's suitability for the Bursary. The applicant should outline their involvement with purebred dogs with an explanation of how the applicant is a worthy candidate and touch briefly on their career aspirations and future plans.
- The remaining 800 words would be an essay outlining the advantages of Purebred dogs verses mixed breeds.
- Currently the National Bursary is for $1000 for first place, $500 for second and $250 for third place. Deadline for submission is June 30 in the year of application.
- The essays become the property of the National Bursary fund and will be published.
- The essays will be adjudicated by a panel selected by the committee from individuals across the country.
